

Mr. E. L. Hanklin

2 plomc 363

50 Portland Terrace

W.

~~J. Schaefer - Jr. and~~

~~11 Portland Place~~

to

St. Charles - Maine

Mt. (copy) - 21-4-'02

d2p2cmc363

In Sydney.

As there is no free house-peak,
Can sketch a cross however fine
into a horizontal line
That shall be ascending straight.

" Whitely melanes "

Copy from a letter of mine
Kibbey & mine memo. (2p3enc 363)

"Just tell you of an amusing conversation which took place behind me as I ~~walked~~ ^{rode} on the coast to W'more

There were 3 gentlemen &
a lady - educated people & judge by their speech. We passed a row of willows in full catkins. & —

Lady. What are those?

1st g. I don't know!

2nd g. how do I.

3rd g. Oh! the local name is ~~palms~~, but I don't know the real name.

Lady. But what do they come to?

3rd g. Oh — er — very nice trees
nice green trees you know!

Lady. Then they don't have any leaves? 42p4cm6363

3.^d S. Yes - I fancy they do!

Lady. The children were saying the other day that all them had flowers.

3.^d S. Well - you might think they would, but of course they don't.

Lady. Ah! - I forget the children must have misunderstood what they were told.

Cap? Ap 21.02

You are to keep this for copy time at your lecture.

11.20.